OMGMA CONFERENCE

2022 together again

September 21-23 2022

Hilton Mississauga
Meadowvale

Program begins Wednesday morning and runs through Friday morning

If you are in a leadership role in a group medical practice in Ontario, you can be part of our supportive community.

The Ontario Medical Group Management Association helps you thrive in the business of providing quality health care by offering a combination of targeted education, the latest information and resources, and peer-to-peer networking.

Get connected!

We understand your challenges and help
you work smarter.

Attend our conference for learning sessions covering hot topics and big challenges, including:

- Legal topics: Privacy, risk management, human rights accommodation, attendance management
- Leadership development, supporting your people, staff morale and retention
- The future of your EMR
- Workplace psychological health and safety
- An update from Ontario Health

Time to chat with and learn from colleagues

Two evening social events with entertainment

Supplier trade show showcasing a wide variety of products and services

We are ready to welcome you!
